Standard tour program

Day 1

Prague – Český Krumlov

(175 km / 110 miles by minibus or car)

Transfer from Prague to Český Krumlov, free time, sightseeing in Český Krumlov. Welcome briefing and dinner at restaurant (Guided Group Tours only).

Day 2

Český Krumlov – Třeboň

(55 km / 33 miles by bicycle).

The first cycling day leads through the beautiful hilly landscape surrounding Český Krumlov. However, the closer you get to Třeboň area, the flatter the landscape becomes. A scenic ride through a picturesque landscape ends in Renaissance town of Třeboň, well-known as a major spa resort. In park near Třeboň you can visit the Schwarzenberg Tomb.

Day 3

Třeboň – Telč (78 km / 48 miles by bicycle)

Optional tour of Třeboň chateau in the morning. The trail winds along many ponds and man-made lakes, so typical for this region, to Perslak, the most northern point of Austria. You will follow the border with Austria on the Greenways trail passing through Nová Bystrice. From Nová Bystrice the trail will take you through the forests of the National Park called Czech Canada. The day ends in Telč, a Renaissance town registered on the UNESCO Cultural Heritage List. Houses on the main square in Telč with facades

Day 4

Telč – Vranov/Bítov are (approx. 55 km / 35 miles by bike)

Optional tour of Telč chateau in the morning. You will ride through several charming villages typical for this area of the country. We will cycle gently through the region of South Moravia and stay over the night in Vranov/Bitov area which is situated near a dam.

Day 5

Vranov/Bítov area – Znojmo (approx. 32-38 km / 20-23 miles by bike)

You will cycle on the Greenways trail following the river Dyje and the southern Czech border with Austria. You can choose between faster paved route and a longer and more demanding but very beautiful trail through the national park of Dyje. Znojmo is the gateway to South Moravia – the region of wine production.

Day 6

Znojmo – Mikulov (61-72 km / 37-43 miles by bike)

This flatland region is a traditional grape-growing area and there are many wine cellars. We continue and arrive to Mikulov, a town with a rich history, a beautiful castle and a historical square. You can choose between the shorter and longer option. Exploring Mikulov on your own in the evening.

Day 7

Mikulov – Vienna (46 km / 28 miles by bike, transfer to Vienna 50 km / 30 miles by car)

You cross the border at the Mikulov border checkpoint, we spend the rest of the day in Austria. The ride in Austria is, to begin, very similar to the Czech section. There are vineyards, fields and small villages along the trail. The cycling part of the tour ends in Mistelbach (45 km) where you meet the driver who takes you directly to your hotel in Vienna. You can also meet the driver in Poysdorf (25 km). This has to be agreed in advance. The official tour programme ends with a check-in to your Vienna hotel.

Important notice: For guided group tours the support vehicle with bikes and the tour leader leaves Vienna on Day 7 in the early afternoon. You can return by supporting vehicle to Prague for free and spend the last night in Prague.
